The table above reports the candidate's stated willingness to do tasks commonly required in jobs similar to this one. Indications of reluctance should be probed during the interview.
Preparation:

- Review the application form
- Review the SELECT test results

STEP 1: Open the Interview

Hello, my name is ____________ and I’m the _____________ (your position). We’re glad that you are interested in this position. The purpose of this interview is to learn more about you and your work experiences. I will be asking you some questions about your likes and dislikes, your goals, etc. You will probably see me jotting down some notes -- that's to help me remember better what you said after the interview is over. There are no correct or incorrect answers, what we want is to learn more about you. At the end, I’ll leave some time to answer any questions you might have. If you are ready, we can begin.

STEP 2: Review the Application and Investigate Potential Problem Areas

- __All blanks completed?
- __Application signed?
- __Several jobs in the last 2 years?
- __Vague reasons for leaving job(s)?
- __Employment gaps?
- __Extremely high or low earnings?
- __Earnings show progress?
- __Can complete all essential functions?

Example Questions:

I see that you were unemployed from ____ to ____. Please tell me about this period of unemployment.

I see that you left your previous employer for personal reasons. Would you explain further?

I noticed that you have changed jobs frequently in the recent past. Why?

STEP 3: Review SELECT Flags and Begin In-depth Questions

While asking the following interview questions, be sure to listen and probe in the following areas highlighted by SELECT:

- Low Energy Level
- Low Frustration Tolerance
1. Tell me about your responsibilities in your previous (or current) job? Which did you like most and why? Also, which did you like the least? Why? (Listen for relevant work experience and likes and dislikes that may or may not fit this job.)

2. Why are you considering leaving or why did you leave your current/last job? (Listen for reliability, job fit.)

3. What attracts you to this job in our company? (Listen for a desire to work and to provide high quality service to your clientele.)

4. How would you describe yourself as an employee? What are your strengths? Weaknesses? (Listen for strong interpersonal skills, work ethic and a willingness to build customer relationships.)

5. What type of people do you like best? And least? Why? (Listen for openness and a lack of prejudice.)

6. What do you think excellent customer service would be in our business? (Listen for service knowledge, values)

7. Tell me about a time when someone failed to provide good service to you. Give me examples of what the person did poorly. How could he/she have improved? (Listen for service knowledge and values.)
8. What do you think is most important in building long term, repeat customer business? (Listen for work ethic, service values, willingness to serve.)

9. Why would a customer refer business to you? (Listen for willingness to serve and accommodate customers.)

10. Sooner or later, we all have to work with a customer who is unreasonable. What types of behavior would you find most frustrating? How would you respond under such a circumstance? (Listen for openness, tact and ability to handle difficult people.)

11. From your understanding of the job, what aspects of the job will you like the most? What are some things you might dislike? (Listen for job knowledge and job fit responses.)

If you are still concerned about the Performance Flag areas, here are some additional questions to ask:

Low Energy Level: Describe your preferred pace. In what types of work situations would you like to be more energetic? (Listen for answers that suggest that the candidate can't handle the pace of the job, or can't self-start to get the job done.)
Low Frustration Tolerance: Describe those aspects of previous jobs which have frustrated or irritated you. How does stress on the job affect you? (Listen for responses that suggest a tendency to be easily affected by the ups and downs of the job or by personal circumstances.)

STEP 4: Conclude the Interview

Those are all the questions that I have for you. I appreciate the time that you have given to me. Is there anything that you would like to ask me?

STEP 5: Make the Hiring Decision

- Resist the temptation to hire someone just because you need to fill the job. You are likely to pay for a hiring mistake both in money and time.

- Focus on how well the candidate fits the demands of the job, not how much you like the candidate’s personality or how much you have in common with the candidate.

- The selection process is designed as an aid to the well-reasoned judgment of a hiring manager, not a replacement for this judgment. In the end, every hiring decision is a judgment call. Use the tools provided in this process to inform your decision, not make it for you.
